to receive your

ND: INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

The dress code is formal and all candidates must wear academic apparel provided by CPUT.

Academic attire will be made available by T Birch and Co on a “purchase” or “hire” basis (grad.orders@telkomsa.net or telephone number 046 622 7010). Candidates are urged to read the enclosed documents carefully and strictly adhere to the specified dates and times. Please remember to collect your two guest tickets at the same venue you collect your attire.

An official photographer (Gordon Harris Photographic (0861 467 366) for all inquiries about photographs) has been appointed by the University to photograph all candidates on receipt of their awards (see additional graduation documents available at <http://www.cput.ac.za/storage/cput-graduation-pack-december-2017.zip>).

Regrettably no children under the age of 13 will be allowed. Two (2) guests per candidate will be allowed. You must arrange your own accommodation and transport. All candidates and guests must be seated 30 minutes before the start of the ceremony.

Please note: Doors will be closed once the academic procession has entered the hall and no late comers will be allowed into the hall.

Candidates who are unable to attend the ceremony should note that their certificates will be available at the respective assessment & graduation offices(Cape Town AND Bellville) from 08 January 2018. Certificates not collected will be posted per registered mail as from 08 January 2018. This will only be done upon receipt of a letter of authorisation from the candidate concerned. If you collect the certificate in person, proof of identity will be required. If you delegate someone to collect your certificate, that person (with proof of identity) needs a letter of consent signed by you.

International students with outstanding balances will be allowed to participate in the ceremony, but their certificates will be withheld until their accounts have been settled in full.

Yours faithfully

Nikile Ntsababa
